

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Authors' preface	23
In place of a foreword	27
Acknowledgements	33
PART I: THE NEW CIVILIZATION MODE	37
The name of the new civilization rose	39
Introduction.....	39
The shock of the future.....	46
The signs of the current transitional period of crisis.....	50
Factors of the composition of a civilization mode	59
The notions of fear.....	59
The internal philosophy.....	63
The scientific worldview.....	64
The social philosophy.....	65
The balanced development of the civilization pillars.....	67
Single-pillar civilization modes.....	68
The theocratic civilization mode.....	69
The administrative civilization mode.....	70
The economy.....	71
The positivistic civilization mode.....	72
The clash of the civilization modes	75
A general viewing.....	75
The foundations of the Western civilization mode.....	77
The idealistic civilization mode.....	81
When the scientific worldview pillar can't evolve.....	82
When the social philosophy pillar can't evolve.....	83
The defeat of the idealistic civilization mode.....	85
The notion of the "civilizational" Left.....	86
The future of the Left movement.....	86

The pragmatic civilization mode of the Western societies	89
The structure of the receding industrial society.....	89
The scientific composition of the Western civilization.....	93
Introduction.....	93
Physics, mathematics and philosophy.....	95
The development of positivism.....	98
The self-criticism of science by Edgar Morin.....	100
The collapse of the civilization pillars.....	102
Introduction.....	102
The reasons for the collapse of the social philosophy pillar.....	102
The reasons for the collapse of the internal philosophy pillar.....	106
The reasons for the collapse of the scientific worldview pillar.....	109
The clash between theology and science.....	111
The clash between social structure and theology.....	112
The clash between science and social structure.....	113
Politics and metaphysics.....	114
The restructuring of the idealistic model	115
Introduction.....	115
Re-establishing the scientific worldview pillar.....	116
Introduction.....	116
The new scientific facts.....	119
The common human logic.....	119
Rationalism and society.....	121
The notion of space.....	122
The illusion of the senses.....	127
The flat world.....	137
The analogy in three dimensions.....	140
Escaping from the flat world.....	141
The notion of matter.....	142
The notion of matter in modern physics.....	143
Images of reality.....	146
Some substantial conclusions.....	147
Senses and reality.....	149
The energy substance of matter.....	150
Positive thought and empirical world.....	152
The secrets of time.....	153
Beyond the limits of human logic.....	153
The problem of time measurement.....	156

The true meaning of time	157
The full vacuum	158
The vacuum in the philosophy of Democritus	158
The physics of the vacuum	161
The accelerating vacuum	162
Beyond scientific knowledge	163
1. Realizing the possibility of error	163
2. The social sensibility	164
3. Respecting the human factor	165
Information technology and ethics	165
Re-composing the internal philosophy pillar	166
The influence of the new scientific thought	166
The scientific phenomenon	166
The scientific prediction	168
Prophecy	168
Modern science and antirrhetic theology	169
Science and the invisible world	171
The problem of the nature of time	172
Time and theology	172
The true nature of time	175
What existed before the creation of the Universe?	176
The timeless nature of God and the “days” of Creation	179
Orthodox theology and modern physics	180
Procedures of reformation of the internal philosophy pillar	181
Suggestions for intervention in theology	183
The Principle of Love	185
The alteration of the notions of good and bad	188
The identification of religion with nation	188
Pharisees and modern pharisaism	189
The influence of Greek philosophy in the formulation of Christian theology	191
The current reality	196
Democracy and original Christianity	198
Reformation of the social philosophy pillar	204
The application of legal rules	204
The hypocrisy of the “society of the citizens”	205
The issue of freedom and social control	206
Administrative and legal freedom	208

Freedom and technology	209
The four limitations of social experimentation	210
The problem of the destruction of the environment	211
Some aspects of the problem	212
Ecology and economic development	213
Ecology, technological systems and unemployment	214
Towards a novel ecological initiative.....	216
The New European Establishment	219
The imperialistic empire	219
The new European empire	222
General elements of a new humanistic civilization mode	223
The humanistic empire.....	223
Some more practical characteristics.....	225
 PART II:
THE NEW CIVILIZATION MODE AT THE GREEK LEVEL ...	231
The first steps of establishing the new civilization mode
in the case of Greece.....	233
Interventions for the reformation of the civilization pillars
at a Greek level	233
The first truth.....	234
The second truth.....	236
The third truth	237
The fourth truth	238
The Greek modernization	240
The Left of our future.....	244
The transitional economy.....	247
Interventions in the pillar of social philosophy	251
Democratic oligarchy	251
The threatened democracy	253
The one who checks and the one being checked	254
The principle of independence.....	254
Political system and election law	255
The two parliaments.....	257
The House of Representatives	257
The Audit Parliament	258
An alternative proposal	260
Democratic interventions	263

Electing the President of the Republic.....	263
The Council of the Unions	264
The problem of the development of the political parties	266
Regime and party democracy.....	266
The basic principles	266
Party democracy.....	268
The decay of the structures of the parties	271
The structure of the political formations in the context of a new Western Civilization mode	272
The new social groupings	272
The expression of the masses.....	272
The specialized expression.....	273
The individualized expression	275
From the Old to the New	277
Some final thoughts	277
Thoughts about the school of tomorrow	279
Learning and education	279
The school in the past and today.....	280
The road of the educational reform.....	283
The educational reform as an institution.....	283
The Greek educational problem.....	284
Some institutional reforms at the national level.....	287
I. Council for the tracing of a national educational policy	288
II. Creation of a position of a non-partisan secretary at the Ministry of Education	290
The structure of primary and secondary education in Greece	291
a. Five-grade primary school	291
b. Three-grade middle school.....	291
c. Three-grade lyceum.....	292
d. Preparatory year for college - System of introduction to the higher education	292
Internal administrative and educational interventions in Greece.....	294
a. The “year-list” for educators	294
b. Connecting the content of the studies with the country’s real needs.....	296
1. Opening the school to the specialists of the area	297
2. Establishment of “specialty camps” during vacations	297
3. The school as a cultural center.....	297

4. The introduction of information technology in secondary education.....	298
5. Choosing a profession from school.....	300
The problem of higher education in Greece	303
Introduction.....	303
University model A (specialization university).....	304
University model B (popular university)	306
Evaluating and criticizing	307
A proposal for a university of levels.....	309
First cycle of studies	309
Second cycle of studies	310
Third cycle of studies.....	311
Fourth cycle of studies.....	311
Analysis of particular problems of a university of levels	312
1. The problem of free education.....	312
Suggestion for a solution to the problem	313
2. The problem of the university textbooks	315
Suggestions for a solution to the problem.....	317
3. The problem of the university autonomy and of the internal rules.....	319
4. The problem of establishing independent departments with fees in public universities	320
5. The problem of private universities	321
Epilogue	325
I would like to be	325
Bibliography	327